Mr. Hogen Bays, Clinical Psychologist, Zen Teacher

DR. JAN CHOZEN BAYS is a paediatrician, mother and wife, who is interested in how meditation and science interface. She is particularly involved in teaching how to use meditation among those with eating disorders and experiencing grief.

Jan has studied and practised Zen Buddhism since 1973. She received Jukai (lay precept) in 1975 and Tokudo (Priest's Ordination) in 1979 from Taizan Maezumi. From 1978 to 1983 she lived at the Zen Center of Los Angeles, directing the Zen Center's non-profit Medical Clinic. She finished formal koan study in 1983 and was given Dharma transmission.

Since 1985 she has been the teacher for the Zen Community of Oregon. In 2002, Jan helped to found Great Vow Zen Monastery and currently is the co-abbot. She is author of "Jizo Bodhisattva - Guardian of children, women and other voyagers" and "Mindful Eating - A guide to rediscovering a healthy and joyful relationship with food", which includes a 75 mins. CD with guided exercises (Shambhala Publications).

MR. HOGEN BAYS holds a Naturopathic Doctor (ND) and Master's Degree (MS) in Psychology. He worked for the Oregon Department of Corrections for 15 years.

Hogen began practising in 1968 with Philip Kapleau, Roshi, and was part of the residential staff at the Zen Center of Rochester, New York until 1975. He lived and trained at the Zen Center of Los Angeles under the direction of Taizan Maezumi, Roshi from 1980-1984. In 1990 he took Tokudo (Priest's Ordination) with Maezumi, Roshi.

Since 1990 Hogen has continued his Zen studies with Rinzaï Zen teacher Shodo Harada, Roshi, abbot of Sogen-ji monastery in Japan and One Drop Zendo in Tahoma, Washington. He has been a leader of the Zen Community of Oregon since 1985 and worked full-time for the sangha since 1997. He is co-abbot of Great Vow Zen Monastery.

Together Jan and Hogen developed the Great Vow Zen Monastery in Oregon. They teach a synthesis of Soto and Rinzaï Zen traditions, "the intention is to broaden our expression of wisdom in everyday life." For further details visit www.greatvow.org.
